

SHOUTING!

- Shouting is speaking very loudly and often angrily.
- People sometimes shout when they get angry or upset but it is not a nice thing to do. It is OK to get angry or upset sometimes but it is not OK to shout.
- It is not nice to be shouted at. When you shout at someone they can become angry or upset.
- Adults do not like it when children shout. If you are shouting adults may be cross with you.
- When someone shouts at us we can try not to shout back.
- If we do shout at someone saying sorry is a good thing to do.
- Shouting is not OK because it can upset others and make adults cross.
