Being Selfish

• Being selfish is keeping everything for yourself or acting in a greedy way.

• Being selfish is a number of things like:
  o only thinking about yourself and not others
  o not being willing to share
  o trying to get what you want even it means acting badly towards others o not waiting your turn
  o taking more than you need and leaving others with less than they need

• Being selfish is not a nice thing to be. It can make other people think that you are not a nice caring person. Other people may not want to be your friend.

• Being selfish is not OK. It is unfriendly and can upset other people.
